Invitation

On behalf of the Chilean Orienteering Federation we cordially invite all international and local orienteers to participate in the two South American Orienteering Championships which will take place in Chile in October 2016.

In addition, we invite all the teams that are members of the Latinum Certamen to participate in XXII Latin Countries Cup 2016.

We also would like to welcome all orienteers from the other parts of the world and invite them to take part at the South American Open Orienteering Championship.

Each competition will have the following races:

Sprint: Individual race for all categories. Short distance in an urban area.

Middle Distance: Individual race for all categories. Woodland area with a vast variety of vegetation.

Long Distance: Individual race for all categories. Woodland area with a vast variety of vegetation.

The Middle Distance has the status of WRE and according to IOF rules it will allow the athletes of category W/M21E to score for the World Ranking.

Venue

Valparaíso welcomes you all to its wonderful and breathtaking scenery. All competitions will take place in this important Chilean county. The Sprint competition will be held within the urban area of Valparaíso Downtown, whereas the Middle and Long Distance will take place in the National Park Reserva Forestal Lago Peñuelas nearby Valparaíso. A wonderful location for an outstanding event.

Location and Embargoed Areas

The embargoed areas are shown on the map (marked with magenta colour). According to the IOF rules it is prohibited to carry out any orienteering event from this publication to the date of the event. It is also prohibited to organize training or field surveys, inspections or other activities that would generate benefits for athletes who participate or perform these activities.

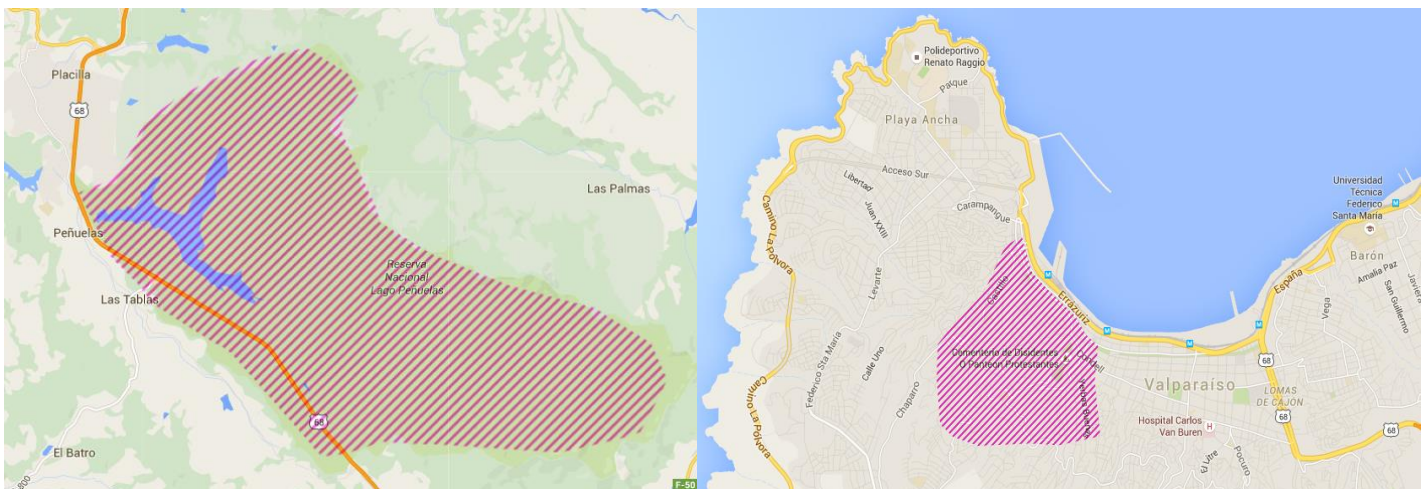

Maps

For all three competitions athletes will have new orienteering maps consistent with the rules of the IOF. Sprint race will be held with a map of scale 1:4,000 or 1:5,000 (ISSOM standard), while for the Middle and Long Distance races maps of either 1:10,000 or 1:15,000 scale will be used. These maps will be printed with 'offset' method.

27TH TO 30TH OF OCTOBER 2016

Terrains

The Middle and Long Distance competitions will be held in areas with moderate relief of hills, depressions and ravines. The vegetation is very diverse and has grasslands, areas with low vegetation and dense forests of pine, eucalyptus and native trees. In the National Park there is the lake Peñuelas, which is not suitable for swimming.

At the time of competition there may be breeding grounds of protected species, which eventually may be marked as prohibited areas in the competition maps.

Sprint competition will take place in a heritage urban area with large numbers of tourists and visitors and little traffic. Traffic safety will be organized in places where needed.

Climate and Hazards

This time of year is late spring in Chile. Daytime temperatures reach 23-24 °C, while the night temperatures are from 8-9 °C. In October in Valparaíso the weather is mostly sunny. But there are also days with cloudy sky and rarely it may be rainy.

No special hazards of any kind are present in the area of competition, understanding that Chile is a seismic country with the corresponding risks. The organization will include all the necessary security measures required in Chile for these cases and make public the rules of behaviour in case of a seismic events.

Each competitor participates in the event at his own risk. However the organization will provide first aid in case of accidents.

Food and Lodging

In the next bulletin we will publish more details for accommodation and food. Valparaíso, the host city is an UNESCO World Heritage City and boasts a large number of hotels, hostels and tourist accommodation. The costs of these accommodations can range from USD 30,00 to USD 120,00 per person per night. In the event website will be published links with detailed information.

The organization will provide "hard ground" plus information on camping, hostels or hotels with special pricing for participants.

Food in Chile is varied and generally prices range between 5,00 and 15,00 dollars in restaurants.

How to get there?

Arrival by plane: Chile Santiago International Airport. From the airport shuttle services by Turbus (www.turbus.cl) every 20 minutes to Terminal Alameda (reference value USD 2,5) are available. Travel time is 20 minutes. At Terminal Alameda you can find several bus lines with regular service to Valparaíso. Another option is the regular shuttle CentroPuerto (www.centropuerto.cl) from the airport to the Metro and Bus station Pajaritos, from where several bus lines to Valparaíso leave (USD 2,2 reference value). The journey from the airport to Terminal Alameda in taxi has a referential cost of USD 20,00.

Arrival by bus: Valparaíso is 130 km from Santiago. From Terminals Alameda or Pajaritos buses of different intercity lines to Valparaíso leaves every 30 minutes. The cost of this trip is about 8,5 USD. These buses arrive at the "Bus Station" of Valparaíso, in front of the National Congress, where you can take public transportation to the Event Centre. The vast majority of lines indicating "Playa Ancha" or "Molo - Park" as part of its route reach the university district and the Event Centre, with a cost of not more than 1,0 USD. The journey from "Valparaíso Bus Station" to the Event Centre in taxi has a referential cost of 12,0 USD.

COUPE DES PAYS LATINS – COPA DE LOS PAÍSES LATINOS – CUPA TARILOR LATINE – COPPA DEI PAYS LATINS – TAÇA DOS PAISES LATINOS ORIENTATION – ORIENTACIÓN – ORIENTARE – ORIENTAMENTO – ORIENTAÇÃO

Welcome

With special joy we would like to welcome all member countries of the Latin Countries Cup, ie SPAIN, FRANCE, ITALY, PORTUGAL, ROMANIA, BELGIUM, BRAZIL, ARGENTINA, COLOMBIA, MOZAMBIQUE, VENEZUELA, SWITZERLAND, URUGUAY, COSTA RICA, PARAGUAY, PERU and CHILE, along with those Latin American countries wishing to join with their teams the XXII version of the Latinum Certamen to be held in parallel with the South American Orienteering Championships.

True to the spirit of this event our organization will work enthusiastically to facilitate the meeting of athletes from each country and exchange of experiences in a friendly atmosphere of coexistence. In addition, the annual meeting of member countries will be included in the program of activities of this event.

In the next bulletin and the official website you will be informed of cultural and tourist activities offered as part of this competition.

Participation and Teams

Each country may present a team of three women and men:

- WOMAN AND MAN - SENIOR
- WOMAN AND MAN - JUNIOR
- WOMAN AND MAN - CADET

The entrants from each team will compete on the same courses as W/M21 E, W/M20 E and W/M18 E, so that races of South American athletes are also valid for the South American Orienteering Championships and the South American Youth Orienteering Championship and may score for WRE.

A team will be able to compete if at least one representative is registered.

CPL regulations apply according to their latest update after the meeting in Chiny (Belgium) in 2015.

Costs

As stated in the "Entries" section of this bulletin, there will be no entry fee for team members who register as part of their national teams, with the exception of South American athletes who also participate in the South American Orienteering Championships.

The registration deadlines are the same as indicated in the section "Entries" of this bulletin.
