Orienteering at UNITED WORLD GAMES 2015

Ladies and Gentlemen!

It is my pleasure to invite you to participate at United World Games 2015. These are annual Games for juniors and for the first time, Orienteering is one of the sports. The Tournament is open for orienteers all over the world, even with your Club or School Team, and also single entries are possible. There is no Limit of Members in a Team or participants in each class. Furthermore, additional days of training and leisure activities can be ordered.

If you want to experience a true Olympic moment competing against teams from all over the world, then you found the right place here with us in Klagenfurt, Austria.

All Information's are available at:

<http://www.unitedworldgames.com/en/> Notice please: Final Entry 1.Mai.

The games are growing up and accommodations at the Playerstown are maybe full in April. So don't hesitate and make your entry as soon as possible. We are glad to meet you in Klagenfurt; more than 6000 new friends are waiting for you!
