Saturday's competition is a World Ranking Event. Competitors who attend class Elite must have IOF ID. To get that, create a profile in eventor.orienteering.org.

Classes: Elite and A-class. Finnish competitors must have a license of Finnish Orienteering Federation. Participating in class A is possible also without the license. The course of class A is easier and is recommended for beginners. All competitors regardless gender, age and mobility will compete in same class according to their skills.

There will also be a children's class both days, which is not a competition class. It's recommended for children 7-12 years old, and even younger with aid of adults. Over 12-year-old are recommended to participate class A.

Entries Finnish competitors should entry in Finnish Orienteering Federation's IRMA-service. Foreign competitors entry via Eventor and may pay in advance until the 7th July via bank transfer or by cash on site. The price depends on the current entry period at the date of entry. Please inform us if you have a paralympic status.

The price of class E is 20 EUR per competition.

The price of class A is 12 EUR per competition. It is also possible to entry in class A via email or on site before the competition begins and pay on site or via bank transfer until the 7th July.

Entries to the short easy children's course until 7.7. via email (instructions below). The price is 5 EUR, and can be paid by cash on site.

The first entry period will be closed in the 16th June. Late entries with 50% higher prices (classes A and E) until 7.7.
