WELCOME TO ESTONIA

It is again a great pleasure to invite the top athletes of orienteering world to Estonia, this time is the turn of World Cup round 2 with European Championships 2020.

Organising the biggest and most important competitions has become a nice tradition to Estonians. WMOC 2016 was organised in Tallinn, the capital of Estonia, and WOC 2017 took place in South Estonia. This time the Event Centre will be in Rakvere – a small cosy town in Northern Estonia with a long and interesting history.

For EOC 2020, as the forest orienteering championships, there has been selected a very suitable terrain with indigenous forest areas. These forests were the habitat for aurochs – the symbol of Rakvere. Today, the area is a habitat for bears, who have been seen by forest visitors from time to time.

The young organising team, with the lead of Jaan Tarmak, is full of enthusiasm and eagerness. Behind their back will stand the orienteering club and Estonian Orienteering Federation supporting with the experiences from previous championships.

I am convinced that EOC 2020 will be held on the best organisational level. Welcome to Estonia in August 2020!

Meelis Mälberg
President of the Estonian Orienteering Federation
Sportsclub SK100 and Orienteering Club “Rakvere” are very pleased to welcome to Estonia competitors of the European Orienteering Championships and the Tallinn Orienteering Week (TOW) event in 2020.

The Organising Committee is working hard to honor in the best way its commitment to orienteers. With less than a year to go, many runners and orienteering fans are excited, giving the organisers more inspiration to continue the work towards a great EOC event in August 2020.

EOC2020 in West-Viru area is a championship for the world’s best orienteers, and TOW2020 is a race where you can meet the challenge of the same terrain as the international orienteers. A championship for all sports enthusiasts who love challenges, experiences and festivities. Welcome to Estonia!

12.2 TERRAIN DESCRIPTION
All competition days use different parts of the same terrain. The terrain has many typical moraine features (eskers, kames, drumlins). Height difference on the terrain is around 30 metres and 20 metres on one slope. There are many hillocks and depressions with depths and heights up to 10 metres. Larger marshes and flat areas are situated around streams and rivers. Depending on the weather, the marshes can be wet.
The vegetation is very varied, but most of the terrain is covered by forest. There are a lot of areas with self-sown undergrowth and high grass. Logging areas can be overgrown. Runnability varies from spruce forest with good runnability to overgrown logging areas, areas with storm-felled trees and a lot of areas with undergrowth, which all have poor runnability. Visibility varies from good to poor. A regular pattern of forest rides covers the terrain and there are some small roads and tracks.
