4. General informations about the EGK OL-Weltcup 2019

- All entries for knock-out sprint and sprint have to be done by you through Eventor, we will not check if all your places are used.
- The SIAC is tested, but there will be a battery check at each quarantine. So it's your responsibility to check before the race if the SIAC is working properly.
- Safety-pins will be distributed in the quarantine on Friday. Please re-use them.
- If necessary, team officials will get a map to navigate from the quarantine to the arena (middle distance and knock-out sprint qualification). Please note that once leaving a quarantine nobody is allowed to go back in.

4. General informations about the EGK OL-Weltcup 2019

- Respect out-of-bound areas marked on the map.
- Those marked with a line on the map, are marked with red-white tape in the terrain. It's the same for all competitions).
- You have to bring the map to the finish in all competitions.
- Course layout: Some connections between 2 controls goes straight over an other control, so be careful and use the control numbers to follow the right order.

4. General informations about the EGK OL-Weltcup 2019

- GPS watches are ALLOWED in all races. Runners are responsible that there is no transmissions of routes to the internet before 12:00 at middle distance!
- Maps are in the same quality as the training maps, sealed in plastic bags
- Artificial barriers

- Crossings of a main road

4. General informations about the EGK OL-Weltcup 2019

5. Specific information Middle distance

After-finish quarantine: Runners arriving at the finish before 12:00 must stay in the team- and the cool-down zone in the finish. Even team officials may not leave the team zone until 12:00. After 12:00 the after-finish quarantine is lifted.

Fields and meadows: It's clear on the map if you are allowed to run on the edge of a field/meadow or not.

Flower Ceremony: 15:47 for athletes ranked 1-3 please be ready, we are on live TV!

Prize giving ceremony: 19:30 for athletes ranked 1-6

Course-setters: Stefan Lombriser and Kaspar Högler

5. Specific information Knock-out Sprint

Start lists: Will be published on Eventor on Friday evening. As the entry deadline is at 17:30, it could take some time.

Heat allocation: heat pick by competitors for quarterfinal, according to the knock-out sprint format description of the IOF.

Qualification: In the qualification, a part of the control description is overprinted with the map. So use the separate control description which you get at the pre-start.

5. Specific information Knock-out Sprint

Arena passage: There will be an arena passage during the final. When passing the arena, take the left corridor and continue through the start corridor. The start corridor and the arena passage corridor leave the arena the same way to the same starting point.

Flower Ceremony: 16:37 for women ranked 1-3, 16:55 for men ranked 1-3

Prize giving ceremony: 19:30 for athletes ranked 1-6

Course-setters: Rahel Ruedlinger and Kilian Imhof

5. Specific information Sprint

Start lists: Will be published on Eventor on Saturday evening. As the entry deadline is at 17:30, it could take some time.

Start intervall: 30 seconds in B-Final, 1'30 seconds in A-Final

Athletes' presentation: Selected runners will get a note with all necessary information and a time schedule at check-in at the quarantine. We would be very happy if the selected runners would take part.

Maps: Are not rolled, but will be placed on a table with the first part of the course facing down.

5. Specific information Sprint

Arena passage: Passing the arena, take the left corridor and continue through the start corridor. Use the right corridor for the start point of the first loop and the left corridor for the start point after the arena passage.

Flower Ceremony: 15:25 for athletes ranked 1-3 please be ready, we are on live TV!

Prize giving ceremony: 15:50 for athletes ranked 1-6

Course-setters: Fabian Hertner and Sebastian Hägler
