Other areas info

There is a reset of the embargoes for Edinburgh WOC on 1st July 2020 - any knowledge gained prior to 1st July 2020 will not be considered relevant (e.g. people who were attending university and had declared themselves non-competitive, or people who were studying at school, can now be eligible).

Embargo rules (valid from 1st July 2020 until opening ceremony of Denmark WOC 2022)

This embargo applies to all potential Edinburgh WOC team members and those with links to elite squads e.g. coaches, team leaders. These restrictions also apply to other orienteers who intentionally or unintentionally could provide an unfair advantage to competitors at Edinburgh WOC e.g. through publishing of routes and timings on Routegadget, Strava or similar.

- Access is permitted in the embargoed areas until further notice. Orienteers are allowed to live, work and study within the embargoed areas, or to visit in a tourist capacity e.g. major attractions, Festivals. Access is not permitted for activities that could be construed as giving an unfair advantage to teams or individuals e.g. detailed reconnaissance of the embargoed areas; testing route choices; use, marking up and annotation of maps in whatever form including paper or electronic copy. Restrictions also apply within buildings i.e. internal layout within embargoed areas.
- No orienteering of any kind may take place in the embargoed areas until after Edinburgh WOC.
- Participation in established running events or similar e.g. triathlon, cross- country, marathon races that pass through embargoed areas is permissible
- No training such as time trials or interval training is permitted within the embargoed areas. Running or cycling regular routes such as access to and from place of work or accommodation is permissible.

Embargo rules (valid from opening ceremony of Denmark WOC 2022)

This embargo applies to all potential Edinburgh WOC team members and those who intentionally or unintentionally could provide an unfair advantage to competitors at Edinburgh WOC.

- Access is not allowed within the embargoed areas (marked in red on the map).
- It is allowed to use "Permissive routes" (marked in green on the map) and enter certain permitted areas (marked in green on the map).
- It is allowed to enter buildings directly from "Permissive routes" (marked in green on the map), so long as that building is directly adjacent to the "Permissive route". It is not allowed to exit the building into an embargoed area.
- No orienteering of any kind may take place in the embargoed areas until after Edinburgh WOC. This also applies to the special permitted areas (marked in green on the map).
- It is allowed to take trains through the embargoed area. Other (public) transport is only allowed along the "Permissive route".
- There will be a full embargo (including the "Permissive routes" and permitted areas) from 2 weeks before the date of the first race, which will incorporate a larger area comprising of the existing embargoed areas plus a buffer zone around them.
