Both races will be held in the map Cabeza Mesada, made by the Spanish mapmaker Ricardo García in the year 2019.

First day the course will be a Classic Distance (around 45' winner time) in a new area not used last year at MaximusOMeeting. Second day, according to results of the day-1, it will be a Middle Distance with chasing start in the most technical part of the map.

Terrain is one of the best in Spain for a middle distance, with very good visibility and runnability. Many rocky details.
