Information regarding both events

Terrain: Mostly same as in 2006 Salo-Jukola. The elevation differences are untypically high for the region; there are several hills of 50-60 m high. The terrain has relatively few paths and trails (excluding the part the children's classes will use) but a few forest roads cross the terrain. The runnability is generally good. The areas between bare rock hills are mostly forested dells, where swamps and marshes are common. The dells have some thicker forest with varying runnability. An important feature concerning runnability is bare rock; besides pure bare rock, the bare rock feature has been used to present rock surfaces with a thin layer of moss or lichen.

Map: Scale on Saturday's selection classes, elite classes and classes H/D21A 1:15 000; H/D 60+ and H/D12 and younger 1:7 500, all other classes 1:10 000. Contour interval 5 m. Map size A3, A4 or A5.

In the relay, the scale is 1:10 000, except on H/D180 and older as well as H/D12 and younger 1:7 500. Contour interval 5 m. Map size A4 in all classes.

The maps are in a plastic case.
