- Visibility: varies from very good in mature beech forests to medium in mature spruce forests and very low in denser spruce and self-seeded beech vegetation
- Runnability: very good in mature beech forests, partly significantly limited by the slope steepness, stones, fallen trees, blueberries and thickets
- Be careful! There are plenty of high cliffs and rocks in the competition area

DEVIATIONS FROM IOF MAP STANDARDS

Christer Carlsson (IOF Map Commission chairman):

 IOF Map Commission has approved a deviation in colour of buildings gray on long, middle and relay maps.

Aleš Hejna (WOC Chief cartographer)

Buildings on all WOC maps are in gray colour with a thin black outline.
 This enhances legibility of maps. You can easily tell the difference between rock features and buildings.

A: YES.

A: The deviation applies to the size of the symbol. The minimal size of the cliff may be slightly smaller than required by ISOM2017-2.

Aleš Hejna: You can't always enlarge cliffs out of real proportions (into ISOM proportions) because it would block passages between cliffs.

Are impassable cliffs forbidden or just dangerous to cross?

A: Just dangerous to cross (according to the ISOM2017-2)

Be careful.

A: Grass in the arena is cut. In case there are some meadows on the course organiser will try to ensure as fair conditions as possible.

A: According to the ISOM2017-2 it is allowed.

A: YES, coaches can come back to the arena parking to pick-up the car, but only after quarantine deadline (8:45 / 15:40)! No interaction with athletes in quarantine zone. It is not allowed to drive through streets adjacent to quarantine zone.

How big is the tent in the pre-start?

A: There are at least five tents 6 x 3 m.

What plans have you got to try to stop mixing athletes with spectators?
