Venues

The 2016 Israel Open Championships will be held in the Ben Shemen Forest, in the heart of Israel, midway between Jerusalem and Tel Aviv.

The WRE events will be held in conjunction with the 2016 Israel Open Championship. The courses for the Elite classes will be the same for both the WRE and the Open event. The overall standing in the Israel Open Championships will be determined by the two-day total.

Note: Day 1 and 2 venues on original schedule have been reversed due to logistical issues.

Thursday, 18 February – Model Event – Neot Kedumim

Note that this event is not part of the Israel Open Championship. The model event serves to demonstrate the terrain, map quality, control features, control set-up, refreshment points and marked routes.

14:00-15:00 – Start window

Friday, 19 February – Israel Open – Middle WRE – Kivrot Hamaccabim

9:00 – First start

Saturday, 20 February – Israel Open – Middle WRE – Ben Shemen

9:00 – First start

12:30 – Award ceremony for WRE Middle Distance Day 1 and Day 2

12:45 – Award ceremony for Israel Open Championships – All Categories

Program

Registration

Competitors who are not registered in Eventor will not be allowed to start in WRE class 21E.

Complaints/Protests

Any complaint should initially be discussed as soon as possible after the problem is identified with the Event Organizer in the arena. If this does not resolve the issue then a formal written complaint should be submitted to the Day Organizer using the IOF Complaint/Protest form. The time limit for making a complaint is 1 hour after the competitor has finished their run.

The Organizer will provide a written decision on the Complaint.

In the case of a World Ranking Event, protests must be made to the IOF Event Adviser or a Jury member within 15 minutes of the Complaint adjudication.

Jury

Eytan Amiaz, Amit Wainer, Yakir Goldner (Day 1), Rafi Heiman (Day 2)

Embargoed Areas

Entry to the embargoed areas is prohibited for potential team members, leaders and others, who through the knowledge of the terrain could influence results of the WRE and/or Israel Open competition. However, paved public roads passing through the area may be used. (Route 443)

Maps and Terrain

Map: Kivrot Hamaccabim (2014)

Scale: 1:10000, 5m contours.

Map maker: Petr Matula
(Old map: S. Yakimov, 2002)

Mixed natural and planted pine/fir forests with a large network of paths and trails. Some steep hills. Some areas of heavy undergrowth and some areas with numerous rock features.

Map: Ben Shemen (2015)

Scale: 1:10,000, 5m contours.

Map maker: Petr Matula
(Old map: S. Yakimov, 2003)

Mixed natural and planted pine/fir forests with a large network of paths and trails. Some semi-open areas with low vegetation. Moderately hilly. Scattered rock features and some man-made ruins.

Transportation

The competition venues in the Ben Shemen Forest are all about 10 kilometers from Ben Gurion airport. No official transport will be offered. International competitors are advised to hire a car from a recognized car rental company.

High temperatures are predicted through Friday, becoming cooler on Saturday.

Weather Forecast

Clothing

There are no clothing regulations for orienteering, and competitors may wear the clothing of their choice. The organizers recommend that competitors wear long trousers/leg protection.

Health Services

The Event Organizer will provide first-aid at the event center and at each competition site. Emergency care and major hospitals are within a 20 minute drive from each of the competition sites. The Event Organizer will not bear responsibility related to medical costs for participants. Participants are responsible for their own insurance.
